TOBACCO HELD TWO YEARS SOLD FOR $700,000.

Louisville Tobacco Warehouse
Company Disposes of Green River Leaf.

OVER 6,000 HOGSHEADS IN LOT.

(Louisville Post.)

The Louisville Tobacco Warehouse Company has sold 6,000 hogsheads of the dark green river crop of 1905, which was stored by the Greenville branch of the American Society of Equity.

The sale is one of the most important in years and interests the growers, the tobacco dealers and financial interests generally.

The owners of the tobacco had pooled their interests through the Society of Equity and stored the tobacco with the Louisville Tobacco Warehouse Company. The banks had loaned money on it and a great deal of local capital was in this way tied up while waiting for the tobacco to be sold.

The total price that was received for the tobacco was about $700,000. The purchasers came to the terms which had been fixed by the Society of Equity.

The warehouse company says that the tobacco was sold to various manufacturers and exporters, and that none of it was sold to the American Tobacco Company, the trust.

The consignment was a mixture of leaf, lugs and trash. The leaf brought from $10 to $10.50, while the lugs and trash ranged from $6.50 to $7.75 per hundred. The average price per hogshead is over $100, which would make the total something over $650,000, with $700,000 as the estimated total.

An officer of the warehouse company said that the sale is one of the most remarkable ever made in Louisville. The tobacco has been selling on the breaks at from $3.50 to $4 per hundred.

The consignment was received about a year ago, some of it coming in as late as October, 1906, but none of it was disposed of until late in March, 1907, so that the demand for this grade necessarily made it valuable, and the purchasers were willing to pay almost any amount for it when the Louisville Tobacco Warehouse Company decided to place it on the market.

The effects of the sale, releasing as it does hundreds of thousands of capital, will be generally felt both in Louisville and throughout the Green River section.

CROP REPORT FOR KENTUCKY.

Both Wheat and Corn Will Fall
Short in Average Crop.

Frankfort, Ky., July 15.—In his crop report issued today, the Commissioner of Agriculture says in part: The first half of the month of June was quite wet, raining nearly every day. Severe storms of wind and hail in some localities. Corn planting, especially in lowlands, that was already late, was still further retarded by these excessive rains. The early planted corn suffered for cultivation, and many fields became foul with grass and weeds. The latter half was almost ideal, and gave farmers splendid opportunity to get their wheat in the shock in good condition, and wage a war on the weeds that were rapidly taking their corn fields.

The acreage of corn is a little short of last year, owing largely to the unfavorable weather that continued too late in the season for preparation of much of the lowlands that would have been planted under favorable conditions. The condition of the corn crop is not up to the standard for the reason stated and that much had seed was planted and failed to germinate, causing a great deal of replanting and making the crop very irregular.

The wheat crop improved materially during the month, but will fall short of an average crop. While the yield will be less than an average, the berry promises to be very fine. The prospective yield is 16 per cent. less than the 1906 crop. Oats promises only about three-fourths of the 1906 crop. Many counties report the crop almost a failure and only a few report a prospect for a full crop. Rye promises some better, but considerably below last year. Hemp is nearly up to last year in average and condition. Burley tobacco is reported 10 per cent. short of last year in average owing to scarcity of plants and labor. Much of this was planted late in June, and will depend largely upon a late fall if it makes a good yield. The dark district has fallen off 28 per cent. in acreage for want of plants to set a full crop. Much of this is also late. Grasses are doing fairly well, considering the damage done by the army worm. The high price and scarcity of seed cut the acreage of stock peas. Potatoes promise a full crop. The fruit crop, except berries, will be a short one. There will be something near a fall crop of sorghum and millet. Much of these crops are usually planted in July and August. On the whole the outlook is not so gloomy as appeared some week ago.

DEATH REMOVES VALUABLE CITIZEN.

The Hon. R. M. Jolly Passes Away at His Home In Irvington.

In the death of the Hon. R. M. Jolly Breckenridge county has suffered a distinct loss. Sagacious and diligent in business, consistent and strict in his Christian duties, lovable and kind to family and friends, and always an ideal representative of true manhood and elevated citizenship, he contributed largely to the county's welfare and his place among us will not easily be filled.

Mr. Jolly died on Wednesday afternoon of last week, at 5 o'clock. He had been ill for some time of consumption, though the immediate cause of his death was heart trouble. For many months his condition had occasioned alarm among his family and friends, yet when it came the shock was as great as if no warning had been given.

Robert Morris Jolly was born in Breckenridge county January 1, 1857, and lived his entire life in his native county. He led an active business career and was largely identified with the commercial development of the county.

Much of his time and means were devoted to the interests of his immediate community, and he was in a large measure instrumental in the upbuilding of Hardinsburg, has bought between 5,000 and 6,000 bushels and is paying 85 cents. At Stephensport, 1,500 or 2,000 bushels have been purchased, 85 cents being the price paid this week.

In public as in private life, Mr. Jolly entered into every undertaking with a zest that knew no failure. In politics he was a Republican, though his broad liberality on all public questions won for him the friendship and esteem of men of every political faith. He held the office of State Senator from this district during the time of the Taylor-Goebel contest in 1901. In 1900 he was the Republican nominee for Congress from this district. He was well known in the State in public life.

Mr. Jolly was a member of the Masonic fraternity and had been since early manhood.

The Christian life that Mr. Jolly led was worthy of emulation. His was a conscientious, religious, and upright life, never forsaking the path of duty as he saw it. He was a member of the Irvington Methodist Episcopal church and held the offices of trustee and steward of that congregation up to the time of his death, and the good influence he exerted for good in church work will be sadly missed.

As a husband and father Mr. Jolly was most affectionate, kind and loving. As a friend he was loyal and true, ever ready to confer a favor.

The funeral services were held from the Methodist church at Irvington on last Friday morning, conducted by the Rev. A. L. Mell, of Middletown, O., who was assisted by the pastor, the Rev. B. F. Wilson.

The burial was in the Irvington cemetery and was witnessed by probably the largest concourse that ever attended a funeral in this county, those attending the last sad rites numbering about one thousand people.

Besides a wife Mr. Jolly is survived by the following children: Robert Morris Jolly Hart, Edwin Hensley and Elizabeth Claire.

Wife's Death.

C. W. Oldrive, who will be remembered in Cloverport as the man who grieved on water, committed suicide on Friday, in Memphis, Tenn., because of the death of his wife. Mrs. Oldrive was burned to death by a premature explosion of fireworks while she and her husband were giving an exhibition on the river at Greenwood, Miss., on the fourth of July.

Oldrive took the body of his wife to Memphis and buried it. He then began drinking heavily, and remained drunk for several days. Friday he bought three bottles of chloroform and drank several ounces of the drug.

Last winter, Oldrive made a trip on the Ohio and Mississippi rivers from Cincinnati to New Orleans, walking on the water with the aid of a pair of large wooden shoes. His wife rowed behind him in a skiff. Hundreds of Cloverport people crowded the river bank to see them pass.

The Statesman.

Not he that breaks the dams, but he
That through the channels of the State
Conveys the people's will, is great;
His name is pure, his fame is free:

He cares, if ancient usage fade,
To shape, to settle, to repair,
With seasons changes fair,
And innovation grade by grade:

Or, if the sense of most require
A precedent of larger scope,
Not dreads in threats, but works with hope,
And lights at length on his desire:
Knowing those laws are just alone
That contemplate a mighty plan;
The frame, the mind, the soul of man,
Like one that cultivates his own.

He, seeing far an end sublime,
Contents, despising party rage,
To hold the Spirit of the Age
Against the Spirit of the Time.

FRANCIS MURPHY'S POWER.

Noted Temperance Advocate's Influence on a Saloon-keeper.

In Los Angeles recently the late Francis Murphy, temperance advocate, went into a saloon and introduced himself to the owner, says the Kansas City Times.

"G'wan, you ain't Francis Murphy, the great temperance man?"
"That's just who I am. I just dropped in to say good night and to tell you there will be a series of meetings at the Y. M. C. A. every night this week and at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, and I want you to come up or send some of the boys and"—

"Well, say, I'm glad to shake your hand. I wish there were more of us in this business. I don't sell liquor because I want to, but just because somebody else would if I don't. So you're Murphy," and the speaker looked over the man on the other side of the bar again. "Say," he added, "let me tell you I admire you and your work. I guess that's about as much as a saloon man could say."

"Except that he will attend my meetings."

"Well, Mr. Murphy, I'll do it. The law compels us to close tomorrow, and that'll give me a chance to come and see you. Remember, I'll be there."

The man came. In two weeks he had sold his saloon and bought a small fruit ranch a few miles from Los Angeles.

The Biggest Horse.

Nebraska Queen, the largest mare on earth, is a product of the breeding farm of S. E. Sparks at Falls City, Nebr., and is being exhibited in Kansas just now, says the Kansas City Journal. Mr. Sparks is to the horse world what Burbank, the noted Californian, is to the world of vegetables and fruit.
It is his purpose to make two big horses grow where one little one grow before, and he is doing it. He has raised a number of large horses, but none so large and perfect as Nebraska
Queen. She is 20 1/2 hands high, 11 feet 8 inches in girth, 32 inches length of head, 9 feet 3 inches girth, 32 inch shoulder, 29 inch throat, 30 inch collar and weighs over 2,000 pounds. She is perfect in every proportion, kind, gentle and intelligent, of beautiful color and is truly a model horse.

Marking Historic Spots.

One by one the historic spots of Thomaston, Me., are being marked, says the Kennebec (Me.) Journal. Next in the list will be the site of the old mission Montpelier, famed as the home of General Henry Knox. Where that palatial structure stood will be placed a huge bowlder, marked presumably with a bronze tablet telling to the world where Washington's war secretary once resided. The bowlder was dislodged from the town farm at St. George and weighed twelve tons.
The task of conveying it to Thomaston was begun recently, when twenty horses hauled it to the main road. The monument will be erected by Henry Knox chapter. Daughters of the American Revolution, of Thomaston, and the cost has been estimated as high as $250.

Chester Chappell contemplates going to Center Point, Ind., in a few days.

On July 8, 1907, the death angel visited the home of H. M. Claycomb and took from him his beloved wife. Before marriage she was Miss Angie Chappell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. M. Chappell. She was married to Martin Claycomb on August 10, 1889. She was born April 18, 1874, making her thirty-three years of age at the time of her death. She joined the church at this place and was baptized when fourteen years of age, and lived a true and consistent member until death. She told her friends she was ready and willing to go when her Master came for her. Not long before death she was heard to say, "Why don't they take me home." Though sick for a long time, she bore her illness with a Christian faith, and expressed a willingness to go at any time. She leaves a husband, father, mother, five brothers, two step-sons and a host of relatives and friends to mourn her loss. She is not dead, but gone before to prepare a place for her loved ones. The day before she died she expressed a desire to see one of her old friends and school-mate, and when told she would be here in a few days, she said, "It will be too late then." She realized her time on earth was but a short time. She was laid to rest on the 9th, in the Raymond cemetery, after a funeral discourse by Rev. J. C. Agebright. Her grave was covered with beautiful flowers brought by her many friends for that purpose. The family have the sympathy of the entire community.

A PRETTY MILKMAID

Thinks Peruna is a Wonderful Medicine.

MISS ANNIE HENDREN, Rockyln, Wash., writes:

"I feel better than I have for over four years. I have taken several bottles of Peruna and one bottle of Manalin. I can now do all my work in the house, milk the cows, take care of the milk, and so forth. I think Peruna is a most wonderful medicine."

"I believe I would be in bed to-day if I had not written to you for advice. I had taken all kinds of medicine, but none did me any good."

"Peruna has made me a well and happy girl. I can never say too much for Peruna."

Not only women of rank and leisure praise Peruna, but the industrious, useful women engaged in honest toil would not be without Dr. Hartman's world renowned remedy.

The doctor has prescribed it for many thousands of women every year and its never fails to receive a multitude of letters like the above, thanking him for his advice, and especially for the wonderful benefits received from Peruna.

Go to Rest.

Mrs. Byron Bandy died on the eighth of July, 1907. She left us to go to her father, whom she had served for sixty years. She was a consistent member of the Presbyterian church at Old Freedom, and the church has lost a faithful member and we a good mother. She always had a loving greeting for her children. She was born January 3, 1829, and was married April 23, 1846, to Mr. Byron Bandy, her faithful husband, who still survives, with the following children: Mrs. T. J. Dowell, Mrs. T. J. Triplett, R. S. Bandy, W. L. Bandy, J. L. Bandy, S. T. Bandy and many grandchildren to mourn her departure. She bore her afflictions with Christian fortitude until God relieved her from this world, and has taken her up to those mansions above to wait for our dear father and us children. As she has left us a Christian life for example, let us live as our dear mother did, so when we are called to go we may look back on a life well spent and go and live with dear mother where parting is no more. Our hearts are so sad when we go to our dear old home and see our dear old father who is left to weep and mourn for her. May God bless dear old father, and help him to bear his burden.

Sleep on dear mother
And tarry rest,
God called thee home
When He thought best.

SALVATION ARMY COLONY.

Free Farming Lands For Deserving Families From Large Cities.

The coming fall will witness the inauguration of a new colonization plan by the Salvation Army, says the Paducah Record. Deserving families from the large cities will be directed to carefully selected districts in the northern part of the south, where land owners are willing to provide not only land and houses, but also implements, horses and even seed, and where advance for necessary groceries can be obtained on the security of the tenant's share of the crops. A thousand families now apply to the Army for the colony in the south as fast as the army can arrange for them.

In locating families in the south two plans will be followed. In every instance where possible the arrangement will be such that at the end of a certain number of years the tenant shall have the option of purchasing the land upon which he is located. Where this is not possible the newcomer will locate on a strictly tenant plan, without option of future purchase. Even in this case he has the advantage of beginning as a farmer, and with what he can gather together as a tenant he will be able to buy some land on his own account.

The part of the south in which the new work is to be carried on will be largely in the Carolinas and Virginia. Those sections are comparatively new to the congested east, and good farm land is cheaper in the south than in any other part of the country. The arrangement which can be made with landowners, who also furnish houses, implements, horses and seed, is usually that the tenant shall keep one-half of all he produces. An officer of the Salvation Army will meet all families upon their arrival in the different districts and for a time at least will visit them each week to give advice and help them to get started.

The slogan of the Salvation Army in all its great colonial work is "The landless man for the landless land."

Why Missouri Superintendent Reaches

Considering ostensibly to lead the youth of the St. Louis educational institutions to love their studies more, but really to make himself popular among the community's gray beards, Professor J. Willz Andrae, superintendent of public schools of St. Louis, recently received a plan to bring to St. Louis a round hundred pretty schoolchildren from other cities, says a St. Louis correspondent of the Kansas City Star. He visited them he had five score applications from young women in Missouri and from Illinois, Iowa and Indiana, each of whom believed herself sufficiently qualified to meet the requirements of the public school pupils.

Superintendent Andrae recently asserted that the average of attractiveness among teachers in his jurisdiction was not high enough. He believes, he said, that the youth would more rapidly learn from pretty teachers than from women with "very faces and bad tempers." Applications would be received from the St. Louis newspapers in several neighboring states gave publicity to his announcement.

The even 100 applications flowed into his office in a steady stream. Half the applicants sent photographs. Many of the others told the superintendent they checked the record, and he had better for personal inspection. All the portraits, said Andrae, were those of women handsome enough to have good husbands. The superintendent, however, showed the pictures to the venerable school trustees each of the officials betrayed new interest in his duties.

Anthracite Coal's Centenary. Just a hundred years ago the first shipment of anthracite coal ever made went from Plymouth, Lancashire county, to Columbia, Lancaster county, Pa., and a number of citizens of Plymouth are now arousing enthusiasm for a celebration of this historic event, says the Pittsburgh Dispatch. Abijah Smith shipped the first cargo of the black diamonds in an ark. Floating down the Susquehanna river. The discovery by Jesse Fell of Wilkesbarre about six months after this shipment that the new fuel would burn in his grate with intense heat without an air blast caused many orders to come into Plymouth for fuel, and the chief business of the town ever since has been the mining and shipping of coal.

Fitting Time. We are railing about now at our house, as busy as busy can be. For some of us head for the mountains. We are raising and fretting and fretting. We have tried up the bird saragosa for. They're started to the brim with cream. The discovery of this new bird need! Pa wanted to cut down expenses, but mother, dear mother, said, "It's not the fact, doesn't like it a bit. But the call of the summer is on us—we must fit, fit, fit!"

The dressmaker's working her head off to get ready for the summer. For without the glad clothes in mid-summer there's no fun in engagement. We are raising and fretting and fretting. The tradesmen are kept on the go. The cutting and the sewing and the making, and trouble and worry and we. Pa says the fact, doesn't like it a bit. But the call of the summer is on us—we must fit, fit, fit!"

There's a mountain of baggage all ready, and soon we'll be speeding away. But one that pa gives is quite sickly, and I think he just muttered "By the way, the call of the summer is on us—we must fit, fit, fit!"

When mother said, "Now you be sure, dear, send us each day a large deck." He'll be calling in the city, meeting his old friends and family. But the call of the summer is on us—we must fit, fit, fit!"

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out all the poisons, waste, and impurities in the blood. If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work.

Pains, aches and rheumatism, and even dropsy, are the result of impure blood. It is used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Klinger's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar bottles. Address: Dr. Klinger & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Don't make any mistake but remember this, name Swamp-Root. Dr. Klinger's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y. is ever yours.

Chief of the Revelations Was That Establishing the Connection of the Big New Jersey Company With the Standard Oil Company of Indiana.

Chicago, July 8.—The attorneys for the Standard Oil Company Monday declined to submit any further evidence in the investigation held on Saturday by Judge Landis in the United States district court. Judge Landis then announced that sentence would be passed on the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, which was convicted of using illegal railroad rates, on August 2.

Chicago, July 8.—The net results of the examination of John D. Rockefeller, president of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, by Judge K. M. Landis of the federal court here Saturday may be briefly summarized as follows: The Standard Oil Company of New Jersey holds $495,000 of the $1,000,000 worth of the capital stock of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana. It has been holding the stock of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey since 1901.

Net earnings of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey for 1904, 1905 and 1906 approximated $179,800,000.

Dividends paid on the capital stock of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey during those years approximated 40 per cent of the capital stock or about $40,000,000.

The Standard Oil Company of New Jersey owns by far the major portion of the stock of the Union Tank Line company.

Union Tank Line company, with a capital stock of $2,000,000, is $5,000,000 in debt and has paid no dividends since 1901.

When Mr. Rockefeller, reputed to be the richest man in the world, was called to the witness stand he rose bravely from his seat and walked rapidly toward the witness stand. At the conclusion of the oath, and in response to the usual question as to whether he would tell the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, he bowed his head in affirmation and said: "I do."

The witness was questioned entirely by Judge Landis. He spoke slowly and with much caution, hesitating, pondering his answers carefully before he gave them. Many of them were uttered in so low a tone that they were inaudible to the court. He refused to make any reply to the questions of the court the witness almost invariably fixed his eyes upon his attorney as if waiting to see whether or not they desired to impose objections. Once satisfied on this point, he answered promptly. Judge Landis asked him to state whether he believed the financial strength and the business methods of the corporation of which he is the head.

THREE MORE WEEKS

Will Be Required to Complete the Haywood Trial.

Boise, Idaho, July 8.—The attorney for William D. Haywood, who completed the details of their plans for the final week of the defense which began with the opening of this morning's argument. In view of this time centers in the forthcoming appearance upon the stand of Haywood, who, it is claimed, has been the moving force in the Western Pacific movement of miners for the past several years, and one of his co-defendants, Charles Moyer, the president of the miners' organization.

Viewed in the light of the closing plans for the defense and prosecution, there seems little hope that the trial which has already been in progress for two months, can be brought to an end inside of three weeks. The defense will require at least all of the five or six days yet, for it is announced that Haywood when he takes the stand will be prepared to lay bare his entire life history.

MR. HARRIMAN'S CASE

The President Now in Possession of Commissioner's Report.

Oyster Bay, L. I., July 10.—President Roosevelt has received the report of the interstate commerce commission setting forth facts and conclusions arrived at as a result of the investigation of E. H. Harriman's alleged manipulations of certain railroad finances. A copy of the report also has been sent to Attorney General Bonaparte and the statement was made by Secretary Loeb that Mr. Bonaparte's recommendations as to future proceedings by the government in the matter doubtless would be awaited by the president before he directed any further move. The conclusions of the commission, it was added, would not be made public until the attorney general's recommendations shall have been received.

Caught on the Track.

Boonville, Ind., July 8.—Taylor McAlise, aged fifty-five, and single, was hit by a coal train while he was walking along the Southern tracks and suffered injuries from which he died.

FOLLOWING CLUES

Detectives Close on Trail of Runyan's Missing Loot.

New York, July 12.—Harry Kirkstein, a close friend of Mrs. Laura Carter, in the apartments Chester B. Runyan, the teller of the Windsor Trust company, who embezzled $65,000 of the company's funds, was arrested, arraigned and held for hearing. It is said Marie Duncan, Mrs. Carter's colored maid, has told the district attorney that on July 2 Mrs. Carter saw her to Kirkstein with a package which she believed contained money.

The police department sent an officer to Chicago to bring to New York Flora Wood, Mrs. Carter's sister, who was arrested there last night and who, it is believed, may know something about the $25,000 which is still missing out of the amount Runyan took from the bank.

BIRIBRY CHARGED

Ohio Banker Is Alleged to Have "Approached" the Prosecutor.

Pomero, O., July 12.—A special grand jury returned an indictment against Banker E. C. Fox, of Middleport, charging him with attempting to bribe Prosecuting Attorney Albert P. Miller. Fox was immediately arrested and brought into court, when he was placed under bond. The indictment grows out of the wrongdoing of the Middleport bank last September, at which time $115,000 in deposits disappeared. Fox was indicted at the time, but has not been brought to trial. Miller claims that in March Fox approached him with a proposition to nolle the indictment against him in consideration of $25,000 to be paid to Miller. Miller had two witnesses present behind curtains to hear Fox's proposition.

Baseball brought in $22,496, with expenses of $18,691; boating, $7,026, with expenses of $15,193; track athletics, $26,246, and expenses of $12,653; and football, $73,429, with expenses of $35,552.

Downfall Due to Women

Louisville, Ky., July 12.—R. Freeman Robinson, alias Robert Frazer, was positively identified by James Denny as the alleged defaulting employee of Gillespie & Young, New Orleans. It is charged that he defrauded the firm to the extent of $26,000. He is said to have left New Orleans last March after the alleged shortage was discovered. He was afforded time to make restitution, but fled. He was held here on the charge of robbing Hager's jewelry store. Robinson owes his downfall to three women, it is said.

Wanted in Colorado.

Atlanta, Ga., July 12.—W. W. Raipce, charged with being implicated in government land frauds in Colorado, was arrested here by the United States authorities. He was unable to furnish the $2,500 bond required for his appearance in Colorado in September and unless he can do so in forty-eight hours he will be taken back to Colorado. Raipce has been in Georgia some time working for a gold mining company, but only came to Atlanta a few days ago.

Important Official Disappeared.

Dublin, July 12.—A rumor is current here to the effect that the portion of the alleged shortage of the past several years was stolen from Dublin castle recently and for the return of which the government has offered a reward of $5,000, was removed by an important official of the order of St. Patrick who has disappeared.

A Bonus for White Labor.

San Jose, Costa Rica, July 12.—The Costa Rican congress has issued a decree authorizing the government to spend $20,000 yearly for eight years in the promotion of the immigration of white laborers and agriculturists to Costa Rica. The money will be used to pay the passage of laborers and their families to this country.

Handicap Winner Beaten.

Memphis, July 12.—Jeff W. Blanks, winner of the Grand National handicap at Chicago, was among beaten shooters competing at all southern meets of the Memphis Gun club grounds, high gun among amateurs being Abe Frank, with 18 killed out of a possible 200.

Auto at the Vatican.

Rome, July 12.—Great surprise has been caused in vatican circles by the fact that the papal secretary, Cardinal Merry del Val, has bought a powerful automobile. It was generally supposed that the pope would not countenance the cardinal riding in motor cars.

Sent Back Stolen Picture.

Berlin, July 12.—The portrait of Emperor Nicholas of Russia which was mysteriously stolen from the gallery of this city Tuesday was returned to the gallery by mail today.

The Hague's View of It.

The Hague, July 8.—The sentiment of the delegates to the peace conference regarding the question that has arisen between the United States and Japan is that the situation is unfortunate for both countries, as the original incident causing tension between the two countries is disproportionate to the grave results which it follows. The question, the delegates think, is likely to create a hostile atmosphere, endangering their reciprocal commerce, to which the former friendly relations have opened vast fields.

I will mail you free, to prove merit samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart or The Kidneys. Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—weak the heart, weaken the lungs, and weaken the kidneys. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. "No other remedy even claims to treat the 'inside nerves'." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me today for sample and free Book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative is sold by Severs Drug Co.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 8.—The significance of Rear Admiral Brownson's addition to the somewhat meager information which has come from President Roosevelt regarding the contemplated two-ocean maneuver of the Atlantic battleship fleet, is regarded here as having been overlooked in the comment, explicit and otherwise, which has since been indulged in on both continents. Admiral Brownson came to Oyster Bay Friday to take lunch with the president, professing ignorance of the maneuver of the fleet. When he left Sagamore Hill to take the train for Washington the admiral had one thought which he wished emphasized—that it was desirable and important to demonstrate to the world how quickly the American navy could transfer its fighting strength from one ocean to the other. This was distinctly an addition to the president's previous statement issued through Secretary Loeb, whereby the object of the maneuver was said to be an exercise movement for the benefit of the navy, to perfect its training in fleet exercises on an extended scale, the purpose and effect of the plan being for the benefit of the navy alone.

What came from President Roosevelt through Admiral Brownson is decidedly a different and much broader design. President Roosevelt has been consistent in advocating a large navy as the surest guarantee of peace between the United States and all foreign powers. Heretofore a large navy has been reckoned solely from the point of view of the number of ships, their tonnage, armor, guns and fighting capacity. With this ideal the American navy has grown steadily. To the somewhat uninteresting array of ships and tonnage, President Roosevelt now proposes to give the world a somewhat startling demonstration of what the American navy is capable of doing to protect either or both of the extended shores of the United States. As Admiral Brownson said there is no time like the present for such a demonstration—a time when the United States is at perfect peace with every nation.

In everything that has come from the president regarding the movement, it has been indicated that the fleet, wherever it may go, is to be brought back to the United States, and its return is to be as great a demonstration of speed as the outward journey.

The most important witnesses for the commission were scattered over four or five states in the West, but every effort will be made by the prosecution to get the witnesses on the ground in time for the opening of court Monday. It is reported that another eye-witness would be introduced today that the prosecution of John Smith, which caused the indictment of Judge Hargis and others for the assassination of Dr. Cox.

Interesting Letter.

Lockport, Niagara Co., N. Y. Editor of Breckinridge News: Noticing the seemingly low excursion rates advertised in your interesting and newsy paper, from Cleveland to Niagara Falls and prompted by no further recompense than the warm feeling I have for the silver tongued Kentuckian, caused by the genial reception and entertainment both Mrs. Babbarge and the writer had at the hands of our friends and many of the residents in your enterprising little city and surrounding country one short year ago, I take pleasure in writing this article for your paper, hoping it will be of some interest to your readers, more especially to those who are contemplating a visit to the Falls and the Niagara Frontier this summer. As you will no doubt enter the Empire State over one of the four trunk lines (Erie R. R., Lake Shore R. R., Nickel Plate R. R., or Penna. R. R.) The first place of interest will be the beautiful Chautauqua Lake, located in Chautauqua county ten miles from Lake Erie in the highest altitude in this section of New York, a sparkling clear water Lake nestled in among the hills, covered with rich vineyards and farm lands and on whose shores the great Chautauqua assembly meets annually.

When entering Buffalo, the queen city of the lakes, and but twenty miles from the great Niagara, if your transportation allows don't fail to stop at the Blue City. Walking two blocks to the left from Exchange St. station to where all trains arrive, you come to Main street, Buffalo's great thoroughfare. Three blocks to the right now brings you to Elliott sq., building, said to be the largest office building in the world. The beautiful McKinley Monument here will be dedicated during Buffalo's Old Home Coming week in September, in memory of him who was so cruelly assassinated at the Pan American Exposition in Buffalo. Other points of interest are Cazenovia Park Observatory, Delaware Park, The Zoo, the Albright Art gallery, etc. You can go to Niagara Falls by Trolley every 15 minutes.

I hope this short article may be of some assistance to my Kentucky friends or to the many readers of the News in their trips to the Niagara Frontier, the present year. Wishing the News much prosperity, I am very truly, E. H. Babbage.

The Meade County Messenger says: "We predicted last week that the race for the Legislature in this county would be the 'warmest and most bitterly fought in years' and our predictions are proving true. One sensation was caused last Monday afternoon when it became generally known that Hon. Gus W. Richardson, through his attorney, J. D. Hardin, had filed suit against Hon. A. J. Thompson for slander, asking damages to the amount of $15,000."

"Mr. Richardson in his petition says that Mr. Thompson has within the last twelve months in the presence and hearing of D. R. Shacklett, Forest Smith and others falsely and maliciously spoke of and concerning him, using these words: 'Gus W. Richardson, while I was sick with typhoid fever, forged my name to a note on the Hardinsburg bank for $350 and I had to pay it to keep him out of the penitentiary.'"

"Mr. Thompson is the present Representative from this county, and is seeking the Democratic nomination again. Mr. Richardson announced his candidacy for the nomination in last issue. They are also brother-in-laws."

"We understand that Mr. Hardin will have associated with him one of Louisville's most prominent lawyers."
